

Raise Your Love

RHODES

I was just a young child, mindless.
Always listening.
I don't want to lay in your choices now.
Too young to begin. It's always on my mind now, the world I adore
Caught up in a lie now, it feels like a war.
Feels like a war.
Raise your love, raise your love. Feels like a storm.
Raise your love, raise your love.
Maybe i'm a soul survivor now,
you're the one who died
I can keep your seeker safe for a while.
Maybe i'm alive.
It's always on my mind now, the world i adore.
Caught up in a lie now.
It feels like a war. Feels like a war.
Raise your love, raise your love.
Feels like a storm.
Raise your love, raise your love. Feels like a war.
Raise your love, raise your love.
Feels like a storm.
Raise your love, raise your love.
Feels like a war.
Raise your love, raise your love.
Feels like a storm.
Raise your love, raise your love.
