

Waking Up

MJ Cole & Freya Ridings

[Verse 1: Freya Ridings] I love you with open eyes I need you not to understand And trying is the only way I told you I cannot be saved [Chorus: Freya Riding] I'm waking up, I can see it all I'm waking up Can I breathe? Can I love for you? 'Cause I know you want me too Letting me burn, letting me burn [Verse 2] You know me You know what I've done You told me, sleep, beautiful one When only the moonlight shone You'd hold me 'till my heart was numb [Chorus: Freya Riding] I'm waking up, I can feel it all I'm waking up I can breathe, I can love for you And I know that you want me too Letting me burn, letting me burn [Bridge: Freya Riding] Is it alien to you, to love me like you do? It's alien to me to stay asleep Is it alien to you, to love me like you do? 'Cause it's alien to me to stay asleep [Chorus: Freya Riding] I can see it all, I'm waking up Can I breathe? Can I love for you? And I know that you want me too And I know that you want me too
