

Hungry Eyes (feat. Meleka)

Sam Feldt

[Verse 1]

Tell me where the dreams go, where they sleep at night
You can follow them and wake up on the other side
I believe in miracles and that's probably why
I can see that there's a fire in your hungry eyes

[Chorus]

Rain may fall, oh oh
But you're like a Phoenix
So let the world know, oh oh
And burn like you mean it
Cause there's no future, there's no past
And you know walls weren't built to last
Rain may fall, oh oh
So burn like you, burn like you mean it
Baby soar

[Break]

[Verse 2]

Tell me 'bout your dark days, where your secrets hide
Let them melt away like snowflakes in the morning light
We're all trying to find our way like a firefly
That's why I feel the fire burning through your hungry eyes

[Chorus]

Rain may fall, oh oh
But you're like a Phoenix
So let the world know, oh oh
And burn like you mean it
Cause there's no future, there's no past
And you know walls weren't built to last
Rain may fall, oh oh
So burn like you, burn like you mean it
Baby soar
Baby soar
