

Mirrors

Niall Horan

[Verse 1]

She closed the door
She hides behind the face nobody knows
She feels her skin touch the floor
She wants to fight
Her eyes are tired, nobody's on her side
She wants to feel like she did before

[Pre-Chorus]

She looks into her mirror
Wishing someone could hear her, so loud
And I need love
To hold me closer in the night
Just enough

[Chorus]

I need love
To hold me closer in the night
Just enough to feel my body come alive
When my bones start breaking, my heart starts shaking
I need love, need love

[Verse 2]

The coffee's cold
He turned around and said "I hope you know You're beautiful, have you ever been told?"
She's a little shy
As he walks away, she slowly breaks a smile
The skies are blue, haven't been for a while

[Pre-Chorus]

She looks into her mirror
Wishing someone could hear her, so loud

[Chorus]

I need love
To hold me closer in the night
Just enough to feel my body come alive
When my bones starts breaking, my heart starts shaking

I need love, need love

[Bridge]

Oh, oh woah

Oh, oh woah

She closed the door

She hides behind the face nobody knows

She feels her skin touch the floor

[Chorus]

I need love

To hold me closer in the night

Just enough to feel my body come alive

When my bones starts breaking, my heart starts shaking

I need love, need love

Oh, oh woa

Oh, oh woa
