

That One (feat. Anthony Hamilton)

Teedra Moses

"That One"

(feat. Anthony Hamilton) Sweeter were the days when we used to play

Catch it, kiss it, hide and go get it

Now we're grown up and there's more at stake

Between loving less is complicated

I swear if you could love me through

All my emotional, crazy, moods

I'll be the one that'll hold you down

When them other hoes leave you lonely If I choose to let down my guard you gotta show me some security

I like a man that know what he wants

And if you don't you can't rock with me

Oh yeah yeah, I'm kinda nice

I can throw that thing like some lucky dice

Just tell me that you hold my heart

Cause them other one's left it lonely

Tell me that you're that one (tell me baby, tell me baby)

That's what I need you to be (that's what I need from you)

And if you show your all (you gotta show me baby, show me baby)

I'll give you all of me Sweet was the kiss [?] day was made

We used to rock away, was so winning

And now I'm in the mood and it's all I knew

I miss the love we were both sharing

I swear if I could ride for you

Be there, have my life with you

Love to take chances, to treat you right

Fix what those other guys did Come hand me your heart, I know what it wants, [?] romance

Someone when you call answers the phone, won't check you for it

You never have to wonder love, nothing can come between us

I get a [?] and fill you up, leave your knees shaking 'til the morning

Tell me that you're that one (tell me you're the one)

That's what I need you to be (all I need you to do baby)

And if you show you off (show you my love)

I'll give you all of me (all of me baby) Tell me you're never gonna leave me no more

(Say you're never need nobody else)

See baby I'll be all that you need

(I'll be all that you need, I'll never leave)

Only if you show your all, I'll give you everything

Cause I wanna give, wanna give you all of me baby Tell me that you're that one (I know that I can be the one)

That's what I need you to be (I'll be all you need baby)

And if you show your all, I'll give you all of me (all of you)

You'll never need no one (you'll never need nobody else)
Cause I'll be all that you need (I'll be all that you need baby, I will)
Boy if you show your all (show you all I have for you baby)
I'll give you everything
