

I Wonder

Dom

Girl I know there's something wrong
I can see it when I look in your eyes
And I know that it couldn't be far
it's the story of our lives
And when I look over my shoulder
I know who'll be on the other side
And things will get trashy until we get to my place And I wonder
I wonder if you will ever know
I never wanted you to go
No I don't think so I don't think so
Or how much, how much I've been wishing we could make it work
Or forget it for a minute and how bad it hurts
And I don't know how and I don't know how
You know that there's nothing wrong
Maybe you just need a reason to cry
Baby I don't have a reason to lie
It's the story of our lives
And when I look over my shoulder
I know who'll be on the other side
And things will get trashy until we get to my place
And I wonder
I wonder if you will ever know
I never wanted you to go
No I don't think so I don't think so
Or how much, how much I've been wishing we could make it work
Or forget it for a minute and how bad it hurts
And I don't know how and I don't know how
