

Palace (Justin Caruso Remix)

Hayley Kiyoko

There's a silent peace in the tragedies
Water washes clean until they're dry
Turn your shattered dreams into rhapsodies
This is where I'll keep you in my mind
I need you to be free
So, this is where I'll leave ya
Sitting in a palace covered in gold, inside my head
This is where I'll see ya on a bed of roses
When I wanna kiss your silhoutee
Ooh, ooh, ooh
This is where I'll leave ya
Every memory adds another piece
Purple, blue, and green
Just rest your eyes
Fortune in the trees
Pure as harmony
This is where I'll keep you in my mind
I need you to be free
So, this is where I'll leave ya
Sitting in a palace covered in gold, inside my head
This is where I'll see ya on a bed of roses
When I wanna kiss your silhoutee
This is where I'll leave ya
Sitting in a palace covered in gold, inside my head
This is where I'll see ya on a bed of roses
When I wanna kiss your silhoutee
Ooh, ooh, ooh
This is where I'll leave ya
Dance in your color
Reflecting in your light
You're my horizon
You'll always paint my sky
This is where I'll leave ya
Sitting in a palace covered in gold, inside my head
This is where I'll see ya on a bed of roses
When I wanna kiss your silhoutee
This is where I'll leave ya
Sitting in a palace covered in gold, inside my head
This is where I'll see ya on a bed of roses
When I wanna kiss your silhoutee
Ooh, ooh, ooh

This is where I'll leave ya
