

Black Rain

Dark Lotus

ABKI can see the Earth starting to shift, inside out
No trace of the moon since the face burned out
Watch the rain fall down hard and heavy
Dark black like dirt but it will burn severely
You can call it the body of the Lotus
Hand of the magical, super un-natural
Keeping you focused
If the rain didn't get you then you're hear for a reason
To spread the word to the world that the pod is in season
Monoxide: You can hear the thunder clap
The full moon gleaming
Like the eyes of a cat, the Dark Lotus is back bitch
And you can feel the ground pulsating
And all the haters start hating but its all been anticipated
And we been waiting until the timing is right
To get to bombing on you bitches
Who misguided the light
And anybody who don't get it
Get the fuck out my sight, bitch
I ain't explaining, I'm just claiming your life. Chorus:
These black rain drops keep falling down
You can tell there's something going on, take a look around
These black rain drops keep falling down
Arms spread to the Lotus cross, holding it down
These black rain drops keep falling down
And I don't know why, why
These black rain drops keep falling down
And I may never know why, know why Violent J: I stick a running chain saw blade all down your throat
And fuck it, and out of your ass
I cut your body in half
I gotta be bloody
Need somebody blood on my body
I need to be the bloodiest
I bloody buddies and hotties
I'm about to murder for the Lotus
Black rainin' falls upon us
And I don't need no more therapy
I know who I am
And I don't like it
Blade through your brain
Through your kablaam Blaze: I sit alone speaking with the head of a raven

He sat there and told me why my life's worth saving
So I shot him in the face
And I shot myself
After he said they're trying to turn the kingdom into Hell
I was appalled
Put his head in my burlap sack
And just then black rain hit me in the back
Ice cold rain drops that look like black blood
They falling all over the neighborhood
And here it comes now. Chorus: These black rain drops keep falling down
You can tell there's something going on, take a look around
These black rain drops keep falling down
Arms spread to the Lotus cross, holding it down
These black rain drops keep falling down
And I don't know why, why
These black rain drops keep falling down
And I may never know why, know why Madrox: A new age, a new time
Now that the planets are aligned
Imagine a Lotus sign
Imagine the broken minds just waiting to be fixed
With the petals of the Lotus you can answer all that shit
We the unstoppable force
So you haters of course
Armed with the fury and the family is a power source
Waking rain clouds filled with black rain sowed up until they become too heavy and burst and I show up Shaggy: Maybe your stupid ass ain't heard
It's a pod lil bitch and we back like a message bird
Lift your chin, face to the sky's black rain
Palms out, feel this thing and let your soul get drained
We don't give a fuck, like it or not
Lotus up in the mirror shots and all Juggalo spots
I put a stain on they little blade pieces
Cause when we out bitch, the black rain increases Chorus: These black rain drops keep falling down
You can tell there's something going on, take a look around
These black rain drops keep falling down
Arms spread to the Lotus cross, holding it down
These black rain drops keep falling down
And I don't know why, why
These black rain drops keep falling down
And I may never know why, know why How do I know this is part of my real life? 2x
