

Time to Get Away

LCD Soundsystem

It's time to get away,
It's time to get away,
From you.It's time to get away,
It's time to get away,
From you.You brought a lot of money
But me, I?
And you, you make me sleep,
I tried and tried.
But you undermine me,
And I start to be sensible
(If you know what I mean).And so it's time to get away,
It's time to get away,
From you.
I'm dying to get away,
I'm dying to get away.And next time we'll talk it over.
And we can start again.Shocked!For you,
I caught a lot of static.
And me,
I'm like an automatic.
Oh what, what, what, what, what
Did you think would happen next?
Oh what, what, what, what, what
Could it ever be?So it's time to get away,
It's time to get away
From you.
I'm dying to get away,
I'm dying to get away.And next time let's talk about it.
Or maybe start again.Shocked!
To think I used to pity you.
To think I used to pity you,
It's true.
To think I used to pity you.
To think i used to talk to you,
It's true.Next time we can talk about it,
Or even start again.
I couldn't tell you what you wanted.Know what I'm sayin'?
I knew you were low, man,
But the truth is I was shocked.Blood!
Power!
Eyes!
Eyes never lie!
Kids!

Kids never lie!
