

In Motion

Allday & Japanese Wallpaper

Haunting the city
Crash with your homies
Chainsmoking rollies
And they're all in love with you
Take me out somewhere
Dancing while under
You need to believe in yourself, like I do
Hold your nerve
Hold your nerve
Steady and sure
Soon will come your turn
Then you're here
Out of the smoke
And I don't believe what I've heard
And I'm healed, from your will
And your powers are real
And my blood, congealed
And my stitches, unsealed
You pop out in my jacket
And I'll wait, till you're back here
'Cause I'm so fanatic
And I keep on thinking
She seems so
She seems so
Unstoppable in motion
Oh
She hangs her arms around my neck
And I'm thinking
She seems so
She seems so
Unstoppable in motion
Oh
And I know it's out of control
Were you late to blossom?
How is it waiting?
Your indignation
I saw you from the start
Ate one too many
Spewed in the lilies
You think you're clever
No baby, you're just smart
But I won't drown to drag you out
Whatever, I could be the one

Caught in the generation
Doing what we saw
So I'm aware that we saw her on the TV screen
Me watching your pupils expand like a chia seed
Are you needing saving baby?
I can't be your deity
I worked too hard
To make things flow evenly
As me and my animals like Ace Ventura
Your Coca-Cola areola that tastes like sugar
You pop out to meet a strange guy
On the corner
I'm gone And I keep on thinking
She seems so
She seems so
Oh
She hangs her arms around my neck And I'm thinking
She seems so
She seems so
Oh
And I know it's out of control
