

Build the Cities (Empire of Sound) [feat. Kerli]

Tristram & Karma Fields

Build an empire of sound
Of sound sound...
sound...
sound...I'm left in nowhere
No place to hide
Out in the open
Like ashes in the sky
I quit the illusion
I'm moving on
Ohhh
I'm moving on
Build an empire of sound
As the bridges were falling down
In the midst of endless time
We've build along the side
Build an empire of sound
As the sun was calling down
Falling deeper in the stream
As we fail to find the scene
Build an empire of soundChange is entering it's way through time
As we all walk in this dangerous line
And I am watching this world on fall
I'll stay, I'll doing just what we're told
Ohh
I'm left in nowhere
No place to hide
Out in the open
Like ashes in the sky
I quit the illusion
OhhhI'm moving on
Uhhh
Build an empire of sound
As the bridges were falling down
In the midst of endless time
We've build along the side
Build an empire of sound
As the sun was calling down
Fallen deeper in the stream
As we fail to find the scene
Build an empire of soundBuild an empire of sound...
