

David Ashley Parker From Powder Springs

Travis Denning

Bought it with cash
Weeks' worth of cuttin' grass
From a senior in the parking lot
That faded ID
Looked a little like me
But honestly it's still a long shot
So, I studied every word
Memorized every line
Till I worked up the nerve one Friday night
Threw a case of beer up on the counter
At a Circle K
And I became
Chorus:
David Ashley Parker
From Powder Springs
November 27 turning 23
5 foot 9 brown hair blue eyes
Levi's, tee shirt
All American guy
Made all the right moves
Said all the right things
Showed up with the smokes
And I bought all the drinks
Whadn't who I was
But every now and then I got to be
David Ashley Parker
From Powder Springs
That little plastic card got me into bars
Made me friends at the liquor store
Yeah, and I was a hit with the good-looking chicks
Every time I shot, I scored
From Macon to Athens to Daytona Beach
Yeah, I was the guy that could get what you need
It didn't even matter I hadn't 21
I had a Georgia license that said I was Repeat Chorus:
David Ashley Parker
From Powder Springs
November 27 turning 23
5 foot 9 brown hair blue eyes
Levi's, tee shirt
All American guy

Said all the right things
Showed up with the smokes
And I bought all the drinks
Whadn't who I was
But every now and then I got to be
David Ashley Parker
From Powder Springs I was David Ashley Parker
From Powder Springs
November 27 turning 23
5 foot 9 brown hair blue eyes
Levi's, tee shirt
One helluva guy
Made all the right moves
Said all the right things
Showed up with the smokes
And I bought all the drinks
Whadn't who I was
But every now and then I got to be Yeah, one of these day I sure hope I get to meet
David Ashley Parker
From Powder Springs
