

Superhug (feat. James Fauntleroy)

TiRon & Ayomari

(AYOMARI)

You know you want the whole wide world

And all the pleasures that it offers to you

Trees to bear fruit cups to overflow

Rags to riches

Water to wine

Sunshine, sunshine

A gifted horse in the stable

Get what you if you say so

(CHORUS)

If you say so

Then the world might stop and the clouds might part for you

If you say so

If you say so

Then the work might stop and the stars might fall for you

If you say so

Easy does it

Big easy button pressing

Progressing get that instant auto automatic

No need for panic

Manic mundane mondays under management

Can it, can it be

Oh so simple simple

Steady tempo timing

Ain't no hills for climbing

Why use hills when you got wheels for riding riding?

Why do drills? Why try to build?

Whats the point of having skills skills?

Plenty time to chill when you sleeping

Time to kill when you're speaking

Stead of being bout it bout it

Cloudy cloudy with a chance of change

Readjust the frame

Read about it read about it or repeat the same (same same)

(CHORUS)

If you say so

Then the world might stop and the clouds might part for you

If you say so

If you say so

Then the work might stop and the stars might fall for you

If you say so

(JAMES FAUNTLEROY)

I just wanna believe in you

So bad that i just believe in you

Even when you do things I can't believe

So bad that I just believe whatever you say

I'll obey baby

Just believe in me

(TIRON)

Open up, open up, come on in

Ima show you what you want, what you need

Then decide what it is

If its real then fill it up and get seconds

If it ain't then just escape out the exit

Second guessing pessimism isn't easy when you kick it with them non believers

Mr. Bob Dobalinas

Perfect never existed anyway

Wait, where you trying to get to?

Ok, get a pencil

Take what you been through

Push through, push through, push through, push through

Plus you done been down

Ain't a rough day, tough time, you ain't got through

Phew

Reset reset

Relax deep breath

Relapse in check

Set the bar high, stretch

Catch a glimpse of sunshine

Wind down you're too wound up

Wind down you're too wound up

(CHORUS)

If you say so

Then the world might stop and the clouds might part for you

If you say so

If you say so

Then the work might stop and the stars might fall for you

If you say so
