

Shut Up & Go

Clinton Sparks

I'ma SHUT UP now,
I'ma SHUT UP now,
I'ma SHUT UP now, alright
I'ma let you speak,
I'ma let you speak,
I'ma let you speak your mind
Even though I heard you
Say the same thing 20 times And I'ma let you think
I'ma let you think
I'ma let you think you're right
But could you keep it down
Could you keep it down
They could hear your voice outside
Don't think it's weird that
You're angry all the time
What the hell would you break my records for?
If you don't love me anymore?
You should SHUT UP and go
SHUT UP and go,
SHUT UP and go And I've been thinking that
I've been thinking that
I've been thinking you need help
All your misery,
All your misery
You just bring it on yourself
If you'd only listen
Maybe we would get along
You're always fighting me
Always fighting me
You're always fighting me so much
Instead of fighting me
Instead of fighting me
Why don't you fight for us?
But god forbid it,
You were ever wrong What the hell would you break my records for?
If you don't love me anymore?
You should SHUT UP and go
SHUT UP and go,
SHUT UP and go And I forgot what the hell we were fighting about
You're so ugly when you shout
You should SHUT UP and go
SHUT UP and go,

SHUT UP and go Now you're staying with
Now you're staying with
Now you're staying with my friends
I just can't believe
I just can't believe that we would ever end
I could still remember
When we first fell in love What the hell would you break my records for?
If you don't love me anymore?
You should SHUT UP and go
SHUT UP and go,
SHUT UP and go And I forgot what the hell we were fighting about
You're so ugly when you shout
You should SHUT UP and go
SHUT UP and go,
