

New Blood

Koda

there's a beast awakening tugging at my feet
and it won't be satisfied
'til it's taken methere's a cold wind blowing rattling the trees
and won't be satisfied
'til they know it's methere'll be
new blood on leaves
new blood on leaves
new blood on leaves
i'm a darkness growing
i'm a violent sea
when i come and cut you down you'll know that it's mein the eye of a reckoning everyone is a sheep
but i've become the lion's mouth so settle in my teeththere'll be
new blood on leaves
new blood on leaves
new blood on leavesfate holds you like an ugly noose
the way you choose
was it worth dying for?
there'll be
new blood on leaves
new blood on leaves
new blood on leaves
new blood
new blood
new blood on the leaves
there'll be
new blood
new blood
